Subject: Bill-C11 Concerns

To whom I'm addressing:

As a Canadian, I'm concerned about the recent demands made by the Music Industry and the extreme changes that they want.

I believe that those changes will violate Canadians' rights and freedoms, and speaking for many other Canadians, I strongly reject these following changes:

Internet Blocking

Removal of Fair Dealing Extensions (Satire, Parody, etc.)

Removal of Protections for User Generated Content

iPod Tax

Extension of the Term of Copyright

The requirement for Internet providers to disclose subscriber information without court oversight based on allegations of infringement

Unlimited Statutory Damage Awards

Content Takedown System with no Court Oversight

I believe in a fair and flexible copyright, and the changes that the music industry wants are take away the freedoms that Canadians' should have

Best Regards:
