

Reproduction for Private Purposes

The Writers Guild of Canada proposed the following amendment to Bill C-11:

Reproduction for Private Purposes

Reproduction à des fins privées

Reproduction for private purposes

29.22 (1) It is not an infringement of copyright for an individual to reproduce a MUSICAL work ~~or other subject matter~~ or any substantial part of a MUSICAL work ~~or other subject matter~~ if

- (a) the copy of the MUSICAL work ~~or other subject matter~~ from which the reproduction is made is not an infringing copy;
- (b) the individual legally obtained the copy of the MUSICAL work ~~or other subject matter~~ from which the reproduction is made, other than by borrowing it or renting it, and owns or is authorized to use the medium or device on which it is reproduced;
- (c) the individual, in order to make the reproduction, did not circumvent, as defined in section 41, a technological protection measure, as defined in that section, or cause one to be circumvented;
- (d) the individual does not give the reproduction away; and
- (e) the reproduction is used only for THE private purposes USE OF THE PERSON MAKING THE COPY.
