Responses

1. Economic Recovery and Growth

Given the current climate of federal and global fiscal restraint, what specific federal measures do you feel are needed for a sustained economic recovery and enhanced economic growth in Canada?

Bring the jobs back from China. Companies should receive tax credit for full time employees, who'se been working for a year or longer.

2. Job Creation

As Canadian companies face pressures resulting from such factors as uncertainty about the U.S. economic recovery, a sovereign debt crisis in Europe, and competition from a number of developed and developing countries, what specific federal actions do you believe should be taken to promote job creation in Canada, including that which occurs as a result of enhanced internal and international trade?

We should first of all supply our own needs. Again bring back the jobs. we want to buy made in Canada products.

3. Demographic Change

What specific federal measures do you think should be implemented to help the country address the consequences of, and challenges associated with, the aging of the Canadian population and of skills shortages?

Do not bring in foreign workers, spend money on education, made it easier for young people to enter trades. Unfortunately, the message young people receive at school is that only losers become tradesman.

4. Productivity

With labour market challenges arising in part as a result of the aging of Canada's population and an ongoing focus on the actions needed for competitiveness, what specific federal initiatives are needed in order to increase productivity in Canada?

Bring the jobs back from China. The problem is not lack of workers, it's lack of opportunity for young people to find jobs.

5. Other Challenges

With some Canadian individuals, businesses and communities facing particular challenges at this time, in your view, who is facing the most challenges, what are the challenges that are being faced and what specific federal actions are needed to address these challenges?

Reduce bureaucracy and red tape. Make it easier for people to start their own businesses. There's nothing wrong with "buyers beware" the government cannot be everyone's nanny. We don't need constant growth. (It is an impossibility). We need steady production, not overproduction, And bring back the jobs.
