NEWS RELEASE

Appointment of the acting Clerk of the House of Commons

Ottawa, Ontario – February 13, 2023

Earlier today in the House, the government tabled the appointment of Eric Janse as Acting Clerk of the House of Commons. The Honourable Anthony Rota, Speaker of the House of Commons, is pleased to welcome Mr. Janse in his new role.

Mr. Janse started his career at the House in 1992 and held various positions throughout Procedural Services before being appointed Deputy Clerk, Procedure, in October 2021. A Table Officer since 1998, Mr. Janse has extensive experience providing advice and support to the Speaker and other Members in the Chamber. He also played a pivotal role in transitioning committees to hybrid proceedings during the pandemic and was instrumental in developing the Parliament of Canada's international program.
