The House Administration has a new strategic plan

On Thursday, April 20, the Speaker of the House of Commons tabled the House Administration's Strategic Plan 2023–2026.

The mission, vision and values in the Strategic Plan set out to guide the efforts of the House Administration's staff to work as "one House, one team" in providing Members of Parliament with exceptional, integrated and accessible services that help them carry out their core duties as parliamentarians.

The mission of the House Administration remains the same: to support the work of Members by anticipating and responding to their needs. To achieve this, the Administration relies on a skilled, diverse workforce with the capacity to innovate and the expertise to serve parliamentary democracy.

Strong values underpin the House Administration's dedication to serving Members and their staff: integrity and impartiality, service excellence, collaboration, and inclusion.

The plan is available in the Reports and Disclosure section of ourcommons.ca.
