

BRIEF TO JUSTICE COMMITTEE

Please Fix the Definition in Bill C-6 on Conversion Therapy

1. Parents need to be allowed to chat with their own children about matters related to sexuality and advise them how to proceed wisely, considering how teenage hormones don't encourage sensible decisions which could change as the young person reaches adulthood. This needs to remain private.
2. Parents should have the right to insist their children understand rules being layed out for them and obey them. This needs to remain private. The vast majority of parents have the best interests of their children at heart.
3. Counselling which is sought by LGBTQ2 Canadians should be given without the counsellor, secular or religious being afraid of being penalised criminally.
4. Forceful methods of trying to change someone's gender identity or sexual orientation should be outlawed.
5. No matter what a person's gender identity or sexual orientation they should be allowed to receive any legal service they wish.
6. We must not prevent or stop conversations relating to sexual behaviour and sexuality in general.

Thank you for considering my brief.
