

MEDIA ADVISORY

Visit by Canada's 2018 PyeongChang Olympic and Paralympic Winter Games Athletes

Ottawa, Ontario – May 9, 2018

On April 26, 2018, the following motion was adopted by the House of Commons:

That, notwithstanding any Standing Order or usual practice of the House, following Question Period on Wednesday, May 9, 2018, the House resolve itself into a Committee of the Whole in order to welcome the athletes of the 2018 PyeongChang Olympic and Paralympic Winter Games, provided that: (a) the Speaker be permitted to preside over the Committee of the Whole from the Speaker's chair and make welcoming remarks on behalf of the House; (b) the names of the athletes present be deemed read and printed in the House of Commons Debates for that day; (c) only authorized photographers be permitted to take photos during the proceedings of the Committee; and (d) when the proceedings of the Committee have concluded, the Committee shall rise.

As such, immediately following Question Period today, May 9, 2018, the Honourable Geoff Regan, Speaker of the House of Commons, will welcome the athletes of the 2018 PyeongChang Olympic and Paralympic Winter Games in the House of Commons Chamber.

Date	Time	Location
May 9, 2018	3 p.m. (approx.)	House of Commons Chamber

For more information

Heather Bradley
Director of Communications
Office of the Speaker of the House of Commons
613-995-7882
heather.bradley@parl.gc.ca