NEWS RELEASE

Unveiling of the Honourable Andrew Scheer's official portrait as 35th Speaker of the House of Commons and tabling of his Selected Decisions

Ottawa, Ontario – October 17, 2018

The Honourable Geoff Regan, Speaker of the House of Commons, was pleased to unveil the official portrait of the Honourable Andrew Scheer, 35th Speaker of the House of Commons, today, at a ceremony in his honour.

The portrait is the work of artist Juan Carlos Martinez.

Mr. Scheer's portrait will hang in the Speaker's Portrait Gallery alongside those of his predecessors. The Speakers' portraits will be moved to West Block when Centre Block closes for renovations.

Earlier today, the Selected Decisions of Speaker Andrew Scheer were tabled in the Chamber of the House of Commons. The publication contains a selection of key decisions rendered by Speaker Scheer during his tenure. It also includes the transcript of each ruling and provides the context for these decisions. The publication is the ninth in the collection of the House of Commons Speakers' decisions and is available in both official languages.
